Refund Policy

For our Full-Term registered whānau, we provide the online session as part of your registration. It's provided as a learning aid for your child/ren and to act as a replacement session if we have to cancel, or if you miss a session. Therefore, we do not offer refunds, personally. If you would like a refund (for whatever reason), you are welcome to get in touch to request a refund. For our Casual registrations, if you purchased a spot in a particular session and were not able to make it (or we had to cancel), please do get in touch and we'll do our best to get you into another session or you can request a refund.

Definition of a 'Child'

For our sessions, a 'child' is defined as any young person under the age of about 6yrs. We welcome babies as young as a few months old (or even younger!). One thing we know is that ALL tamariki respond to beat, rhythm and the overall vibe that music offers, even while in their mother's womb! So we do not set a minimum age to our sessions and invite any parents/carers who are keen to bring along their wee ones to a regular musical offering in their community, then, by all means, nau mai, haere mai!!

Please note: If one child is tagging along with an older sibling, then we are happy for you to decide whether to pay for both or just the older child.

Hiring a Props Pack

Please come and see us if you have hired a Props Pack. You can hold on to this and use for one term, then return at the last session you attend for that term.

If you forget to return it, then please do get in touch and we will make arrangements either to come and pick-up or for you to drop-off to one of the venues.

Online Session

The online session is available to all, via Vimeo, in two ways.

Full-Term registered whānau will be given 24-7 access to it, as part of their registration fee, and will be emailed a password to access it.

Casual registered whānau are given the option to 'rent' the session for three months (from purchase), for $15NZD (approx. $11.50USD, depending on the exchange rate at the time). Once purchased, you can watch as often as you please!
